SENIOR COPYWRITER · BRAND VOICE · EDITORIAL

Brooklyn, NY · 843.364.4635 · hello@ayannacrawford.com

PROFILE

Copywriter and brand voice specialist with a background spanning startups and media, the last five years focused on professional writing. I have built and guarded brand voice for a venture-backed insurtech startup, ghostwritten thought leadership for a CEO, and now write research-driven product journalism at NYT Wirecutter, where every sentence has to earn a reader's trust. I turn complicated things into copy that sounds like a person wrote it, because one did.
